The Lemurian Awakening

A Few Comments

Ethereal Awakening Quartz

Hello Everyone! Sorry that it's been a while since the last newsletter, but hope that wherever you are you are enjoying your fall (or spring). Can't believe that we are heading into the big holidays already ... it seems like it was just mid-summer! Suffice to say that it's been beyond busy ...

First a few housecleaning topics ... my computer crashed again and have given up on it ... out it to sleep. The new computer is zippy although my first time on Windows 7 (from XP), so it's taking some getting used to. In the old computer burps, I lost emails, notification of sales, etc. so please be patient with me as I try to patch things back together again. It's been a big lesson in patience, focus and resisting the urge to heave the old computer out of the window.

Second, have tried something new. All of the catalog pages have been redone so that they are more streamlined and zippier. They now appear at the website header as opposed to being on the search page. You can still do a key-word search or search by category there ... and I'm still working on the categories since some are way too broad. This one is a work in progress and coming along slowly.

And lastly, there will be no new postings on Sunday, November 21 as I will be in New Orleans all weekend, visiting my mother-in-law who will turn 90 in January (and I could get killed for telling everyone how old she is ... ). Look for a great listing on November 28th!

The Lemurian Awakening

Now, the topic of the newsletter ... the Lemurian Awakening, a new channeling.

"We, The Three, Elders of Lemuria ... have spoken to you about our history and what happened to our beloved land. It was not unexpected and we had much time to prepare, so our peoples had time to migrate to different parts of the Earth so that all that was Lemuria would never be lost. We foretold the Quickening when those with Lemurian roots would feel a stirring and begin to remember. Now is the time of the Awakening when those stirrings will take form.

Golden Healer Lemurian

Our Earth is in turmoil. There is much hate and conflict - peoples against peoples, brothers against brothers. Many don't even know why they fight or why they hate ... they just do. Mother Earth is doing what she can, trying to cleanse. There have been many violent storms, earthquakes, floods, volcanic eruptions and other natural disasters as you would call them. We have seen this before and it does not need to be like this. Mother Earth reacts to the emotions of her peoples so this outcome is destined.

Many of you wonder if this is the precursor to 2012 as the Mayans predict ... that the world as you know it will end. It is not quite what you think for it is not a physical thing nor a destructive one. People among you with vision and Lemurian blood coursing through their veins will step forward. In the transition, some will be assassinated by those who still hate, but in the end, love and all the emotions love evokes will prevail. The ways of Lemuria will awaken and in effect, the Earth will become the New Lemuria. This will not be an instant process, but a gradual one and for many, it will not happen in their lifetimes. But know that it will and many of you already feel the pull.

Mother Earth is responding as well. For as much as she is trying to cleanse, she is also providing tools from the crystalline realm with Lemurian crystals arising all over the world. Every one of the continents has these crystals, some already coming to light and others that will appear as they are needed in the future. They are forming a massive power grid that will activate within the Earth as well as among the New Lemurian peoples. You will not have to call yourselves Lemurian ... others will know by your actions and the love in your hearts that radiates like a sun. For those with the Lemurian calling, this will be a release beyond anything they have known. They will feel a sense of purpose and belonging, something that has eluded them in their lifetimes before and haunts their dreams.

We tell you now that this will all transpire and that it will not be either immediate or easy. But, it will save this Earth and transform it into a truly Lemurian society. It is time and we Three are here to assist. Know that we will not abandon you and we have so much to teach you. Much you already know instinctively, but life in the New Lemuria will be different than it is now – it will be more nurturing and compassionate. People will truly think globally and consider more closely, the effects of their actions. Many of you will begin channeling different aspects of life in Lemuria so that you can bring those things to New Lemuria. All must be respected.

We will speak to you again as the Awakening continues ... “
